LYRASIS Facilitates US and Canadian Participation in International Interlibrary Loan Voucher Program

June 1, 2010, Atlanta, GA - LYRASIS announces its participation in the International Federation of Library Associations and Institutions (IFLA) interlibrary loan voucher program, affording LYRASIS members and other US and Canadian libraries the opportunity to borrow and lend resources easily on an international basis through the purchase of IFLA vouchers. LYRASIS is assuming the role that BCR formerly played in the program, as part of the transition of BCR members to LYRASIS membership. The IFLA website lists LYRASIS as the primary source of vouchers for the US and Canada.

Open to both LYRASIS members and non-members in the US and Canada, the LYRASIS IFLA voucher program makes it easy for libraries to pay for their international interlibrary loan requests by using vouchers instead of money. Benefits include:

- No bank charges for either requesting or supplying library.
- No money lost in international exchange rates.
- The vouchers can be retained for future use.
